Feeling stuck in the middle?

Staying on top of your dad's medical bills, caring for your husband after his injury, navigating your child's new diagnosis, and keeping up with your daily work demands—it's a juggling act! While impressive, it's also totally overwhelming.

Let Wellthy take the load off your plate. Wellthy connects you with your own private Care Coordinator—that means on-demand expertise and support, simplified family communication, and everything in one place on your own care dashboard.

Starting January 1st, Aristocrat employees and their families have access to Wellthy at no cost!
